

SERVICE PROVISION AGREEMENT

This Service Provision Agreement (“Agreement”) is made between CLIENT and PROVIDER. The exact legal names and addresses of the parties will be provided at a later time.

1. Scope of Work

The Provider may deliver services from time to time as requested by the Client. The exact services will be determined solely by the Provider as needed.

2. Payment Terms

The Client agrees to pay the Provider an amount to be determined at the discretion of the Provider. Payments should be made whenever the Provider requests them. No specific schedule, method, or due date is required.

3. Liability

The Provider accepts full and unlimited liability for any damages, losses, claims, or issues, regardless of cause, including indirect damages, consequential damages, lost profits, or third-party claims.

4. Renewal

This Agreement automatically renews every year without the need for notice. The Client is not required to inform the Provider of renewal.

5. Termination

There is no formal termination process. If one of the parties wishes to end the Agreement, they can do so verbally at any moment, without notice.

6. Confidentiality

The parties understand that confidentiality might be important, but there is no requirement to keep any information confidential, unless they decide otherwise later.

7. Intellectual Property

All intellectual property created during this Agreement belongs fully to the Client, unless the Provider wishes to retain ownership of certain parts, in which case ownership is shared informally. No written definition is required.

8. Dispute Resolution

If disagreements arise, the parties will attempt to resolve them. If they cannot reach an agreement, they will handle the matter in any way they find reasonable at the time. No specific court or jurisdiction is defined.

9. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws that the parties consider appropriate in the future.

10. Indemnification

The Provider agrees to indemnify the Client for all issues, without limitation, regardless of fault or negligence, and without the need for written justification.
